

Why Clubs Are Good For Australia

Heartwarming stories of clubs caring for the community

By Craig Burnard

In Why Clubs are good for Australia learn how clubs come to the aid of millions of our citizens by sharing the stories of individuals, families and groups whose lives have been positively impacted by the support of their local club.

Whatever the size, whether located in the country, suburbs, or city, clubs now have a chance to share their good news stories.

Stories from the country and our cities

LEARN HOW OUR CLUBS:

- Improve the lives of families facing difficulty
- Mentor our indigenous youth
- Help the homeless get back on their feet
- Care for our veterans and senior citizens
- Community support through staff volunteer programs
- Provide refuge during natural disasters
- Help keep struggling charities afloat
