Here's what our customers have said:

"We couldn't be happier with our new digital honour boards. Craig and his team had the innovative solution we were looking for... The process across to digital was seamless, our design brief was met and we have all our data in a format which can easily be updated each year.

We have no hesitation in recommending Instorevision for any Club considering a digital honour board solution."

Samantha Barrass, Marketing Manager - The Surf Club Mooloolaba, Queensland.

"Craig and his team at Instore Vision were a breeze to work with! Our club dates back to the early 1900's with a rich history, there was so much information to get through. We sent Craig through photos of the existing boards along with all the information (so much) and his team created the perfect scroll video to honour our members past and present. Lead time was excellent, 10/10 recommend."

Angelica McDowall - Functions & Sponsorship Coordinator, Darwin Golf Club, NT.

"Craig and his team at Instorevision reproduced a digital form of our original board using photographs, and the result is spectacular. The process was made very easy from start to finish and the Honour Board is very user friendly. I highly recommend Instorevision for any project of this nature."

Victor Bradbury, ICT Manager - St Michael's College, Queensland.

"The club is over the moon with our new digital honor board. We now have much more space and members and visitors are very impressed with both the presentation and space we have for other purposes. We can now simply digitally update annually. We have no hesitation in recommending Craig and his team for this innovative product."

Rick Brockwell, Sponsorship and Marketing Manager - Banyule Bears, Victoria.

"We highly recommend digital honour boards from Instorevision. Accessing professional signwriters can be challenging, time-consuming and costly. Craig arrived whilst touring the area and we now wonder why we didn't organise this years ago. Digital boards streamline the process. Installation and updates are fast and cost effective, ensuring timely recognition of achievements without the hassle and they look great."

Stephen Short - President, Mount Beauty Golf Club, Victoria.

The Hervey Bay Tennis Association renovated its Club House back in 2015. Our Committee and Members were looking for a solution as to what we were going to do with our 5 honour boards due to the lack of wall space.

Craig Burnard from Instorevision had sent the Club an email regarding Digital Honour Boards for Clubs in our predicament. I contacted Craig and within 3 weeks we had our New Digital Honour Board installed with all 5 old boards information now on 1 which we get updated after our Annual Meeting each year.

Many of our visiting Members from other Clubs have commented on how impressed they are with the current board and asked for Craigs contact information.

I would recommend all Clubs looking to free up its Clubhouse wall space to contact Craig from Instorevision for a solution.

After researching several companies for the installation of digital Honour Boards NBC Sports Club fortunately made the decision to employ Craig Burnard and his team at Instorevision

Not only was this decision by far the most cost effective but the works that were completed were seamless and professional.

Craig and his team provided timely communications at all times and even with the very large size of our Data base that was provided the turnaround time was outstanding.

The ends result was a traditional style looking digital honour board that has saved us on space and received many compliments from our Members.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Instorevision for any Club considering an affordable and professional digital honour board solution, we could not be happier!

We recently completed an upgrade of our facilities and took the opportunity to free up wall space by using digital honour boards. Craig at Instorevision made this process straightforward and we now have two televisions covering officials and playing honours. This process allowed us to recognise many more achievements than was possible on fixed honour boards. If you would like to have people within your club better recognised and displayed I commend the team at Instorevision to you.

The Tennant Creek RSL Sub Branch needed to update their boards in their clubhouse. Craig Burnard from Instorevision sent us an email regarding Digital Honour Boards which we had never heard of. Once his presentation was shown to the committee we were sold on the idea of a Digital Honour Board.

Craig was a great help in designing our board and answered all our committee's questions. We are extremely happy with our Digital Honour Board and have had nothing but positive comments from members and visitors to our RSL.

The Tennant Creek RSL Sub Branch highly recommends Instorevision to any club that is considering changing to a digital honour board.

Thank you to Craig Burnard and Instorevision for our new digital honour boards.

Like many clubs we have struggled for wall space so the club decided it would go down the path of displaying our honour and sponsorship boards digitally at the club.

We sourced several quotes from other companies and decided to engage Instorevision with the job. Craig was a fantastic help throughout the process and attended to all our requests, Craig even managed to include our club song into it.

We are extremely happy with the final product and have since received lots of compliments from our members and opposition clubs that have seen it firsthand down at the club.

We can now simply digitally update our boards annually in a simple and effective manner.

The Cockburn Cobras Football Club has no hesitation in recommending Instorevision to any club considering a digital honour board solution.

Like a lot of clubs with gold leaf honour boards we were looking for a more efficient way of updating our honour boards still keeping the original style. Craig and his team at Instorevision were able to design a solution to meet our requirements.

Craig was very professional, any questions were replied to promptly. The job was completed in a very short time, delivered with ease.

The members could not be happier with the result, a traditional looking honour board. Some members sitting to watch the screens roll through. Visitors to the club comment on how clear and easy to read the screen is.

Digital Honour Boards

Mt Lawley is a Western Australian suburban tennis club. As part of modernising the clubrooms it was decided it would be appropriate to digitalise our 13 honour boards.

Following an internet search I chose Instorevision-Craig Burnard, as my first point of contact and never looked further. This was a big project; with Craig's help and guidance it was achieved within 3 weeks.

Craig made himself readily available when assistance was needed during the process. I would recommend to any club, looking to undertake a similar project, that they engage Craig.

After major renovations to our Club, the Club was face with a dilemma of where and how to display the 80+ years of member achievements in a manner which was accessible to all members.

The solution that Instorevision provided with their digital honour board system enable the Club to display not only the previous honour board information but also enabled the Club to add additional information. This additional information included listing all the team members of our successful pennant teams, which the Club was unable to do previously due to space and cost considerations. The Club has received many positive comments from both members and visitors to the Club on both the appearance and information contain on our digital boards.

The work undertaken by Instorevision in designing and converting our existing records to a digital format was done in the most professional manner. The annual maintenance of our digital boards is both timely and cost effective compared with our previous boards.

I have no reservations in recommending Criag and his team at Instorevision to any club or organisation reviewing their honour board display options.

Re: Digitising Honour Boards

Banyule Cricket Club were in the market to digitise our existing wooden almost filled honour boards and were recommended by other local clubs that had engaged InstoreVision.

This proved to be a great outcome with the ease in creating boards that are now displayed with the traditional look that has impressed all that have seen it in operation.

Craig and his team were always available to discuss any issues and provided any support needed to bring this project to fruition

We would have no hesitation in recommending InStoreVision for your next digitising project.

Following damage to the Club's Honour Boards during a recent flood it was decided to move to a digital Honour Board system. Instorevision was recommended by another local Club and undertook the job for us, working from a mixture of bad photographs and some word documents.

Craig Burnard was very helpful, and patient and we now have a professional looking scrolling board on a 65 inch TV screen. (with a USB backup in the safe).

The Digital Board, combining all the old wooden boards has been well received by members and attracted a lot of attention. I can recommend Instorevision to anyone looking for a similar system.

I would not hesitate to use InstoreVision. Their professionalism and friendly service is recommendation in itself.

To whom it may concern,

We recently upgraded our traditional, wooden, honour boards with new electronic honour boards.

I have never heard so many comments in relation to honour boards at any of the clubs that I have been involved with or visited over the forty five years that I have been involved in local sports.

The team at Instore Vision have made a great product, their service in assisting us old timers to convert to technology was made easy without making us feel too old or silly and the price is extremely reasonable when you consider that future updates will now be so simple and without the complications of matching paint and lettering let alone finding someone to do it.

The Flemington Cricket Club is moving with the times and our honour boards are looking great.

Thank you to the team at Instore Vision, you have excelled with your product and service.

“Having taken over as Golf and Operations Manager at Mt Coolum Golf Club, like most golf clubs, we had one wall covered in old honour boards, of varying shapes, sizes and colours. After discussions with the GM and President we came across Instorevision’s website. Craig supplied us with a demo file that we took to the Board Members, who were very impressed with the quality of the file supplied. I provided Craig with photographs of the boards and in return received a competitively priced quotation to transcribe into a video showreel through one of the club’s TV monitors. We couldn’t be happier with the end result”.

Like most traditional clubs, Honour Boards are a way to display some of the Clubs History. The old wooden boards consumed a lot of wall space and are very labour intensive to update. With modernisation TV Screens are the future. We found with our small club we had limited wall space therefore we needed to find a solution to promote and preserve our history. I googled Digital Honour Boards, and found In Store Vision had all that we were looking for. After speaking with Craig, I knew he was able to provide a complete service.

Our Club is very happy with the results; our Digital Honour Board is very professional, easy to read and has the visual appearance of a traditional board.

We have just had our first yearly update, and it was a breeze.

Craig is so easy to deal with and very helpful, I would recommend In Store Vision to provide your new Digital Honour Boards.

To whom it may concern,

Instorevision was recommended to us by The Albert Bowls Club, after we had decided to move to a digital Honour Board. We had run out of room on our existing boards and also were out of wall space for new Honour Boards. Also the cost of new boards and yearly updates was a problem.

We sent Craig photos of our existing boards and within a really short time we had a new scrolling digital Honour Board. We had over 100 years of records.

It is a traditional looking honour board, is easy to read and has been well received by members and visitors. People are seen reading the Board from start to finish.

Craig was exceptionally easy to deal with, especially as we were completely out of our depth with the technology involved. All we had to do was provide the photos.

We can wholly recommend Craig and InstoreVision to any Club looking to update their Honour Boards.
